Uninhibited Baroque

With performances that "always produce revitalizing, edge-of-your-chair music," the award-winning ensemble ROMANESCA turns to the works of the 17th century Italian maestro di capella Uccellini whose violin writing extended the instrument's range and whose compositions pushed the sonata to its highest point of development up to that time.

"Some of the most uninhibited baroque playing around. Any disc released by Romanesca is a 'must'". Classic CD
